Penny: Look at that camera, 8X zoom, 12 mega pixels and full HD resolution, it's perfect.

Sens: That's awesome Penny. You could take great pictures with it. It's at least twice as good as your camera now.

Penny: More than twice as good and it has way more features and photo options too. Oh it also has a way higher price set. I don't have enough money to buy it.

Sens: Penny, look at this one. It's half the price and it's almost as good. See?

Penny: No. It's not much better than the camera I got for my birthday last year.

Sens: Well if you can't afford this new camera maybe you can be happy with what you already have.

Penny: Maybe.

Penny: Oh dear. This isn't even close. I need to earn seventy eight ringgit to have enough for the camera. I know. I'll take on extra jobs to earn the money. I just got to have it. I don't think I'll be happy until I get it. I'll start by asking mom, dad, grandma and grandpa if they have any chores needed to be done, then I'll go and ask the neighbors and see if they have any work for me and finally I'll put up flyers around town saying I can do all kinds of chores like cleaning, babysitting, mowing the lawn and even washing the car. I'll have the camera in no time.

Penny: So you see mom and dad I really want that camera and I know I need to earn the money to buy it myself. I've already cleaned my room, took out the trash, did all my regular chores. Maybe the car needs washing? Thanks. I'm going over to grandma and grandpa's house now. Hi Suzy.

Suzy: Guess what Penny? Daddy brought home a new game and some ice-cream, want to come spend the night? I can't wait to see you. I feel like you've...

Penny: I'm sorry Suzy that sounds really fun but I just can't tonight. I'm so tired, I'm going to bed now.

Suzy: What? You're passing on a new game and ice-cream? I've missed you lately Penny. Come on it'll be fun.

Penny: Sorry Suzy, another time? I've just been working all day and I'm wiped out.

Suzy: Why are you so tired?

Penny: I've been doing extra work to make money to buy a new camera. I'm sorry Suzy but I really got to go, bye.

Suzy: Bye Penny.

Penny: Suzy calling again? I've already told her I'm busy. Again? Who is it this time? Barry? I better tell him I'm busy. Barry, hi. Yeah. I can't hang out or talk right now, I'm busy working.

Barry: Penny wait, it's been over a week and none of us have seen you. Suzy, Sens and I are at the skate park want to come join us?

Penny: Sorry Barry, I'd love to but I've got to keep working. Say hi to Suzy and Sens for me okay. Bye. Only nine ringgit and fifty cents short. I'm almost there. The camera will be mine soon. I wonder what picture should I take.

Sens: Penny, look at yourself. You're ignoring your friends and family. You're obsessed with making money and getting that camera.

Penny: Sens, what are you doing here? Can't you see I'm busy?

Sens: Penny, look at yourself. Your obsession with that camera is jeopardizing your relationship with everybody. It's great for you to work hard but there are things more important than making money, like family and friends.

Penny: You're right Sens. I've been so selfish that I've been ignoring all of you and I think I've hurt my grandparents feelings too. I don't need that new camera, I just want it. Needs and wants aren't really the same things. So thanks for coming to talk to me Sens.

Sens: You're welcome Penny. Now go to bed you look terrible. But come to the mall and meet us tomorrow afternoon okay.

Penny: Definitely. I'll be there. Hi guys. I'm sorry for acting so selfish lately. I lost sight of what's really important, you guys.

Suzy: Just don't be such a grumpy pants again okay and come spend the night this weekend so we can play that game and eat ice-cream.

Penny: You've got it Suzy.

Barry: Hey, let's go look at the camera you wanted.

Penny: Okay. What's this?

Sens: We all pitched in a little bit to help you get what you want so much. Friends help each other out Penny.

Penny: Thank you so much guys. This is so nice of you. I know what's my first picture going to be, you three.

Sens: Oh the best CPU out there. A ??? twice the size of mine and a gaming graphics card, oh I've got to have this.

Penny: Come on now Sens. Practice what you preach right.

Sens: I have to have this.

Penny: It always feels good to buy new things. Sometimes we get carried away when there is something we really want to buy until we completely forgot about the people around us who we love and meant a lot to us. We get so caught up in the mission to make money to buy the things we want that we shut ourselves out from the rest of the world and our actions tend to hurt those people around us. So it is important to know that being focused and getting what we want is good but it is also important to know that we shouldn't get carried away with it. Making money takes a lot of effort. There's no such thing as a free ride. So we must work hard and have a plan to get what we want. At the same time don't forget the friendship that you have built with your friends. This is true because such friendships once lost is not going to be easy to get back. Work hard and cherish your friends.
